Online Master of Science in Clinical Mental Health Counseling

Applicants to our online master's in clinical mental health counseling must submit the following materials:

- Completed online application form
- $50 application fee
 - Waiver available if applicant attends an information session or is a Marquette University alum
- Personal statement
 - Your essay should emphasize why you're interested in the program and why you are suited to the counseling profession
- Unofficial transcripts can be submitted with application. If a candidate is admitted, official transcripts from past academic institutions will be required prior to registration
- Two letters of recommendation
 - These letters should speak to your potential for success in graduate school, fitness for the counseling profession and personal strengths and limitations
- Interview with a faculty member from our counselor education and counseling psychology program
 - We only invite final stage applicants for an interview. This 30-minute conversation provides both an opportunity for us to get to know you better and for you to become more familiarized with our program and the university

You must possess an undergraduate degree from an accredited institution to apply to the online counseling program.
